A Message from FR. CLINE Forty Days

If you are one of those Catholics who think Lent is merely the past tense of “lend,” you might want to lend an ear. Or, rather, an eye. The Catholic Encyclopedia online (newadvent.org/cathen/09152a.htm) has a treasure trove of information about the season we’ve entered, and there are quite a few surprises.

First up: the name. “Lent” is actually an ancient Teutonic word that means the season of spring. Evidently, the Church Fathers decided that word was catchier (in English) than the Latin quadragesima, which means “forty days.” It’s unclear when, exactly, the observance of Lent began, but the earliest record we have dates from the 400s. But even earlier, St. Irenæus, from the second century, wrote about fasting before Easter.

Secondly, Lent is actually longer than forty days. The forty days that are counted do not include Saturday or Sunday.

Why forty days? Aside from the strong biblical connections—Christ’s forty days in the desert, Moses’ forty years of wandering, Noah’s forty days of rain—there is the prevailing thought that Jesus spent forty hours in the tomb.

And fasting? For many faiths, the idea of fasting has been around since before the time of Christ. The Lenten fast is first mentioned in the fifth century, when a historian wrote: “Some abstain from every creature that has life, while others of all the living creatures eat of fish only.” A couple hundred years later, St. Gregory wrote: “We abstain from flesh meat, and from all things that come from flesh, as milk, cheese and eggs.”

Ah. Eggs! The encyclopedia notes: “The general prohibition of eggs and milk during Lent is perpetuated in the popular custom of blessing or making gifts of eggs at Easter, and in the English usage of eating pancakes on Shrove Tuesday.” (And you thought eggs had something to do with the Easter Bunny.)

Of course, in the last few decades, many of the customs that were once so familiar to this season have begun to disappear. Most people don’t entirely abstain from meat—Church rules only require it on Fridays—and many of us give up other things instead. Chocolate and television are two popular choices. (I’d like to see cell phones added to the list, too.) And fasting has become easier, too; it now means eating just one full meal.

Ultimately, I think, fasting during this penitential season is an outward expression of inward conversion. For these forty days, we are living in a desert—no “Alleluias” at Mass, no flowers on the altar—and fasting is an example of that. By skipping a hamburger or avoiding a candy bar, we make some small sacrifice and express a void waiting to be filled. Something is missing. We are hungry—but not merely for food. We hunger for redemption, and for the hope that finds fulfillment in an empty tomb. (How ironic that we are filled because of something left empty!)

So, let’s all go hungry, and let’s all go forward, as we journey on through the wilderness.

And when we reach our destination, on Easter Sunday, please: Pass me the pancakes.

Fa Cline

Stewardship Reflection

"No longer was there manna for the Israelites, who that year ate of the yield of the land of Canaan." - Joshua 5:12

Over the forty years that the Israelites journeyed through the desert, God provided them with manna to eat. As soon as they were able to enjoy the fruits of the Promised Land the manna ceased. Likewise, God's blessings to us may change over the years but it is important to trust that God will always provide us with all that we need.

Please Note

A Note from the Pastor

Every year we come together as one Catholic community to support the Annual Diocesan Appeal. The appeal is a powerful reminder of our brothers and sisters who are in need and are served by Catholic Charities. I am so grateful for those who have already made a pledge towards a goal of $232,300.00. So far, the parish community of St. Catherine of Siena, has pledged $54,875.44. Those pledges are from 225 donors. Together we are creating a caring parish community that shares its resources with those in need. If you have not yet made a pledge, please do so. If you have any questions about the appeal, your gift or how to give, I encourage you to visit the appeal website at DOY.org/Appeal.

The St. Catherine of Siena Corner

DID YOU KNOW?

With the invention of the printing press occurring approximately fifty years after Catherine's works, numerous letters of hers were published in 1500. A significant number of St. Catherine's prayers were initially composed in her native Italian, while others were written in Latin. As a result, translations of her prayers into English may vary.

ST. CATHERINE OF SIENA PARISH PRAYER

Almighty God, through the intercession of St. Catherine of Siena, grant us the courage to speak your truth with love and conviction. Help us to be a fearless advocate for justice and righteousness, guided by the Holy Spirit. Teach us to be compassionate as we strive to be a faithful witness to the gospel message. In Jesus' name we pray...Lord hear our prayer.

St. Luke Prayer Chain

Intercessory Prayer has been a hallmark of St. Catherine of Siena Parish even before St. Luke and St. Charles churches merged. Each week there is a growing list of Prayer Requests in the parish bulletin. This list is “open” to requests from both churches. Information for adding a name is printed each week in the bulletin below the Prayer List.

St. Luke Church has an email Prayer Chain that is emailed to “pray-ers”, i.e., individuals who pray for the intentions on the Prayer Chain as requests are received. To add your name to the email list to be a “pray-er”, call the St. Luke campus and ask for your email to be included. To add the name of a person who needs prayers for surgery, emergency health issues, or other immediate needs, call the St. Luke campus 330-782-9783 to add a name or intention. Explicit medical details do not need to be included for privacy reasons. These prayer requests are emailed to the Prayer Chain as they are received.
