A Message from FR. CLINE LETTERS

If you're curious about the issues facing our world today, I'd like to offer you a final thought: We no longer write letters.

Oh, we zip off emails and text messages and cryptic shorthand on our smartphones. Now and again, we'll fire off postcards from vacation, scribbling with lazy fingers still moist with Coppertone. "Great weather. Wish you were here."

But when was the last time you got a letter, an honest-to-God letter, from someone you hadn't seen in months? It's a dying art.

Saint Paul was a prolific letter-writer—we hear his epistles again and again, Sunday after Sunday—and down through the centuries, popes and bishops have done a good job of leaving us letters and encyclicals that we can strain to read until our eyes fall out.

But these days, most of us, I think, prefer to just call, text, or send an email. And that's a tragedy. We are missing something—something vital and necessary.

Recently, I stumbled on these words, written by Saint Bernard of Clairvaux:

While I write this letter you are present to me, as I'm sure I will be present to you when you read it. We wear ourselves out scribbling to each other, but is the Spirit ever weary of loving? We find rest in those we love, and we provide a resting place in ourselves for those who love us.

It's hard to feel love from a laptop or a smartphone. But you can get some small sense of another's feelings by holding in your hand a letter—a piece of paper that another person once held in his or her hand, carrying ink from their pen, words from their heart.

The great teacher of the disabled (and, in my opinion, living saint) Jean Vanier once read those words of Saint Bernard and reflected:

Love can be a real nourishment. We should not be afraid of loving people and telling them we love them. That is the greatest nourishment of all.

That says it. Our hearts hunger to rest in those we love, much as we rest in God. "Our hearts are restless until we rest in You," Saint Augustine famously wrote. I think that one of the transcendent miracles of the Eucharist is that it enables God also to rest in us. That is part of the great wonder and tranquility of what we call "communion." We find union with God, and He with us.

And we need to find union with one another, too. We need to make ourselves present, as Saint

Bernard did in letters to his friend. (We need, perhaps, to be Eucharist to one another—sharing each other's presence in mutual thanksgiving.)

I can't help but think that a good way to find that union is with pen and paper. This week, find the time to write a letter to someone you love—a spouse, a friend, a relative. Give them something besides an email, text, or a call. Give them something that requires effort, and thought, and a little bit of your heart. When you write it, they will be with you; and when they receive it and open it, you will be with them. Hearts and minds will embrace.

When was the last time seventy-three cents bought something so miraculous?

Fr Cline

Stewardship Reflection

"But when he comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you to all truth..."

-John 16:13

It has been said that the best gift we can give someone is to teach them how to pray. If you don't talk and more importantly, listen, to God every day, how else will you know what He is calling you to do? Just as you talk to family and friends every day, get in the habit of talking with God every day. Develop a daily prayer routine. Keep your prayers simple and sincere. This is best done in silence, when you can hear God's response.

Please Note

Parishioners from St. Charles and St. Luke Churches inquired about what name to write on checks that are written for St. Catherine of Siena Parish. Until the financial paperwork is completed at the bank, we ask that you continue to write the checks to the respective churches. Checks made to St. Charles will be deposited in their account; St. Luke checks will be deposited in their account. When the legalities of the new account are finalized, you will be notified.

St. Charles Steeple Project

On the afternoon of Palm Saturday in 2023, a severe windstorm impacted Boardman and the surrounding areas, causing damage to various properties, including the steeple of St. Charles Church. After a thorough assessment by our insurance company, we are now prepared to replace the shingles on the steeple. This project is set to commence on Monday, June 23 (weather permitting), and is expected to be completed by Friday, June 27. Please note that the Rt. 224 entrance will be closed during the shingle replacement for safety reasons and to accommodate the dumpster. We appreciate your understanding during this necessary process.

First Communion Photos & DVD's

All St. Charles CCD First Communion photos and DVD's are available to be picked up in the parish office. The parish office is open Monday through Friday 8:00 a.m. until 3:00 p.m.

Shawls and wraps are available to

by a campus office to pick one up.

Sacraments

Anointing of the Sick

The Rite of Anointing reminds us that one does not have to wait until death is imminent to receive the Sacrament.
It serves as a spiritual healing, offering the individual the Holy Spirit's gifts of peace and courage to navigate the challenges that come with their illness. Contact St. Charles Campus office at 330-758-2325 for sacramental emergencies.

Baptism

To arrange a baptism, please reach out to the campus office. Parents need to be registered and active members of St. Catherine of Siena Parish. If you reside outside the area but wish for your child to be baptized, a letter from your home parish confirming your active membership is necessary.
Additionally, parents are required to

St. Luke Prayer Chain

Intercessory Prayer has been a hallmark of St. Catherine of Siena Parish even before St. Luke and St. Charles churches merged. Each week there is a growing list of Prayer Requests in the parish bulletin. This list is "open" to requests from both churches. Information for adding a name is printed each week in the bulletin below the Prayer List.

St. Luke Church has an email Prayer Chain that is emailed to "pray-ers", i.e., individuals who pray for the intentions on the Prayer Chain as requests are received. To add your name to the email list to be a "pray-er", call the St. Luke campus and ask for your email to be included. To add the name of a person who needs prayers for surgery, emergency health issues, or other immediate needs, call the St. Luke campus 330-782-9783 to add a name or intention. Explicit medical details do not need to be included for privacy reasons. These prayer requests are emailed to the Prayer Chain as they are received.
