A Message From.....

Sister Mary Alyce

** Remember to turn in your ballot for the new name for our parish. They are due on Monday, October 7. They can be placed in the collection basket THIS weekend or in the wooden box on the shelf in the narthex after mass.

In the past few weeks there have been meetings of the new Pastoral Council and Finance Council for our new parish.

The Pastoral Council members from Saint Luke are: Diana Colaianni, Linda McClure, Suzanne Gomochak, Molly Slaina, Colleen Kelty, George Garchar.

St. Charles PC members are: Theresa Provenzale, Ryan Klein, Gina McQuillan, Jim Villani, Ed Crepage, Frank Lazzeri. The parishioners offered their names to be on the transitional team and then agreed to stay on as the PC for the coming year.

The Finance Council members from Saint Luke are: Herb Rickard, Bob Lape, Rich Rizzi, Rick Clautti, Don Rodenbaugh. St. Charles FC members are: Patrick Finn, Denise Statler, Teresa Yarger, David Pavlich, Pete Noll, Liz Phillips. The members of the FC were carried over from the past year since they are familiar with the workings and plans of the parish projects and activities. These two groups will be meeting regularly to begin to plan for the transition. Msgr. Zuraw, Fr. Cline and I are ex-officio members of both Councils.

You will notice a green box on p. 5 of the bulletin describing the various ways you can keep in touch with what is happening in the diocese. As the Shepherd of the Diocese of Youngstown, Bishop Bonar has a personal goal of keeping the teaching mission of the Catholic Church present in the lives of his diocesan parishioners. In this day and age of social media, (Ref. Blessed Carlos Acutis from last week's list of suggested names for our new parish) the world is moving ahead in the area of communication and Bishop Bonnar wants to be sure our diocese keeps pace with its progress. I'm sure you noticed the QR codes in recent bulletins as a quick way to access important information or The Catholic Echo magazine delivered directly to your home each month. The Catholic Echo is designed as a teaching tool to reach as many Catholics as possible. All registered parishioners in all the diocesan parishes receive it each month. These social media icons in the green box are examples of how the diocese is providing education and insight into important questions and topics of interest to Catholics in the Third Millennium. Check out the podcasts and the other ways of keeping connected.

October is Respect Life Month and many think of it as the Respect for Life of the unborn. I'm not disparaging this in the least. But I have always loved the month of October for what it brings us. For one thing, nature itself brings us an array of colors and smells and tastes and textures that turn our attention toward our Creator. How can something as simple as the color of a leaf or the bark of a dog or the eyes of an infant help us reflect that we are all in this great big, wonderful world together? That is precisely why the season of fall is so inspiring to me. We, and all of nature, are all creations of our loving God and as such, we are called to live in harmony with all that God creates. I'm thinking of how something so simple as an acorn or a buckeye can turn our minds and hearts to the immeasurable love of God, who chose to place us among all of these beautiful natural works of art. So during the next few weeks, I invite you to stop and take in all the wonders of all of creation, including people we meet whom we may or may not know well and thank God for this array of beautiful surprises that come into our lives each day and that we sometime miss because of our busy-ness. We would do well this week, to see the world through the eyes of Francis of Assisi, recognizing that everything in the material world is not so much stuff that we can do with as we wish, but rather is a part of us. Everything can lead us to Jesus if our eyes and ears are open.

Until next time.....Sister Mary Alyce

During the month of November, we remember our beloved dead but especially on The Feast of All Souls, November 2 at the 4:30 p.m. Mass. Once again a prayerful announcement of the names of parishioners who have died between October 14, 2023 and October 14, 2024 will be read during the liturgy. The November 2 Mass will include the names of our relatives who have died during the past year but who are not members of Saint Luke Parish. This is a way to remember them in the context of prayer within the Saint Luke Community. If you would like to submit the names of your relatives who are not Saint Luke parishioners and who have died this past year (October 14, 2023 to October 14, 2024), please complete the form below and return it in the collection basket or to the parish office by Monday, October 21. We are members of Saint Luke Parish, a Roman Catholic Community of Faith within the Diocese of Youngstown. Born in Baptism and sustained by the celebration of the Eucharist, we embrace our life in Christ through prayer and sacrament, service and outreach, proclamation of the Word and formation in faith.
Our blessing and gift is that we are a parish family which creates a warm and welcoming worship environment to celebrate our Faith.
