A Message From.....

Sister Mary Alyce

This weekend we welcome our seekers who are discerning entrance into the Catholic Church through the OCIA (formerly RCIA)

The OCIA (Participants from Saint Luke are:

Catechumens (not baptized):

Jessy Horkey

Mary Kidd

Candidate (baptized in another faith tradition but not fully initiated)

Joe Hollabaugh

The OCIA team: Betse Rizzi, Anna Firth, Suanne Gomochak, Deacon Bob, Sister Mary Alyce, Deacon Mike, Fr. Cline, Msgr. Zuraw.

The St. Charles OCIA team is preparing the following persons to enter the Church: Dylan Barrett, Justine Kramer, Jacqueline McGinnis and Zitlua Liu.

Please keep these individuals and the teams in your prayers as they journey together towards the Easter Vigil when they will be fully initiated into the Catholic Church.

In case you missed the announcement last weekend, the top three parish names that we are submitting to Bishop Bonnar in November are St. Catherine of Siena, Resurrection and Sts. Mary and Martha. These three names received the highest number of ballots at both Saint Luke and St. Charles, although not in the same order at both churches. To me, this shows the working of the Holy Spirit in our two parishes' discernment of what a proper name for our new parish should be. I hope you plan to come to the REVEAL Celebration for St. Charles and Saint Luke parishioners on November 10 at 1:00 pm. in the Saint Luke Parish Hall and meet some St. Charles folks while you are here. If you know someone from St. Charles, why don't you call them and formally invite them? See the invitation in the bulletin on p. 6 and don't forget to call in your reservation or use the QR code to let us know how many from your family will be attending so we can plan for food and seating.

In Mark's gospel everyone believes he or she can see. Yet when Jesus encroaches on their turf, most react defiantly. Except those healed. In today's gospel, (Mark 10: 46-52) none of them, except Bartimaeus, sees and follows Jesus. Not the scribes and Pharisees, not the disciples who are alongside him, not those who are seeking out his healing. Unlike all those who have come before him, Bartimaeus, the one who begs to see, not only is restored to sight, but is empowered to follow Jesus on the way to life. Mark identifies a process of discipleship in this gospel and Bartimaeus, who is clear about his disability, begs to see, Jesus heals him and he is transformed and follows Jesus. That's how it is with God's grace, once we experience it. If we don't ask with honesty and openness to what God can reveal to us, then maybe we are like everyone else in the story except Bartimaeus, who sees, asks and is transformed. (excerpts from Roc O'Connor, SJ)

Prayer for Autumn Blessings

O God of Creation, you have blessed us with the changing of the seasons. As we embrace these autumn months, may the earlier setting of the sun remind us to take time to rest. May the crunch of the leaves beneath our feet remind us of the brevity of this earthly life. May the steam of our breath in the cool air remind us that it is you who give us your breath of life. May the scurrying of the squirrels and the migration of the birds remind us that you call us to follow your will. We praise you for your goodness forever and ever. Amen.

Until next time.....Sister Mary Alyce

Parish Mission Statement

We are members of Saint Luke Parish, a Roman Catholic Community of Faith within the Diocese of Youngstown. Born in Baptism and sustained by the celebration of the Eucharist, we embrace our life in Christ through prayer and sacrament, service and outreach, proclamation of the Word and formation in faith.
Our blessing and gift is that we are a parish family which creates a warm and welcoming worship environment to celebrate our Faith.
